

Join us this weekend Around the Campfire

Rick Meyers' Old-Time Music Show

Friday, June 24

8:30-9:30 p.m.

This lively show immerses the audience in the musical heritage of American pioneers along the Oregon Trail. Instruments and household items such as the musical saw, jewsharp, spoons, banjo, ukulele and washtub bass are included as part of this informative, fun-filled presentation.

Pacific Northwest Birds of Prey

Saturday, June 25

8:30-9:30 p.m.

Live birds of prey visit the campfire circle from the Audubon Society of Portland's Wildlife Care Center. Find out cool raptor facts and see these beautiful birds up close.

AT THE CAMPGROUND AMPHITHEATER

Join us this weekend Around the Campfire

Old-Time Music with Dave and Will Elliot

Friday, July 1

8:30-9:30 p.m.

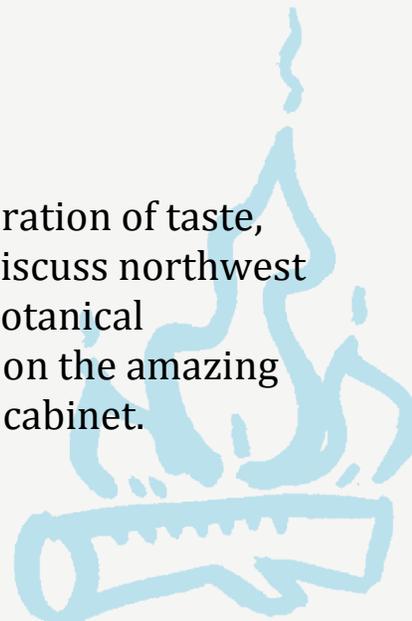

This local father-and-son duo from just up the hill returns to Oxbow with great blue-grass tunes. Enjoy old-style duets and perhaps sing along with some favorites.

Nature's Camping Spices

Saturday, July 2

8:30-9:30 p.m.

Join herbalist Missy Rohs in an exploration of taste, scent, and the natural world. We'll discuss northwest Oregon's native plants and explore botanical identification and safety as we focus on the amazing spices found outside of your kitchen cabinet.

AT THE CAMPGROUND AMPHITHEATER

Join us this weekend Around the Campfire

The Roots of American Music

Friday, July 8

8:30-9:30 p.m.

Join singer, songwriter and guitarist Dave Mullaney for the classic sounds of the American blues. Hear the different styles of blues and learn about the musicians who created this wonderful old-time music.

Stories from the Far East

with Alton Chung

Saturday, July 9

8:30-9:30 p.m.

Come on a journey to the Far East and hear storyteller Alton Takiyama-Chung tell folktales from countries across the Pacific Ocean. Hear treasured folktales which have been told and retold for hundreds of years from far off places like Japan, China, and Korea.

AT THE CAMPGROUND AMPHITHEATER

Join us this weekend Around the Campfire

Green Tambourine

Friday, July 15

8:30-9:30 p.m.

Green Tambourine plays hits of the 1960s. Using tight vocal harmonies, multiple instruments, and vibrant energy, they bring the spirit and fun of the Beatles, Ronettes, Mamas and the Papas and more!

Salmon Stories, Bear Tales, and the Legend of the Swallowing Monster

Saturday, July 16

8:30-9:30 p.m.

Join master storyteller Will Hornyak for an evening of Northwest myths, legends and tall tales. Will's storytelling never fails to please.

AT THE CAMPGROUND AMPHITHEATER

Join us this weekend Around the Campfire

Innisfree

Friday, July 22

8:30-9:30 p.m.

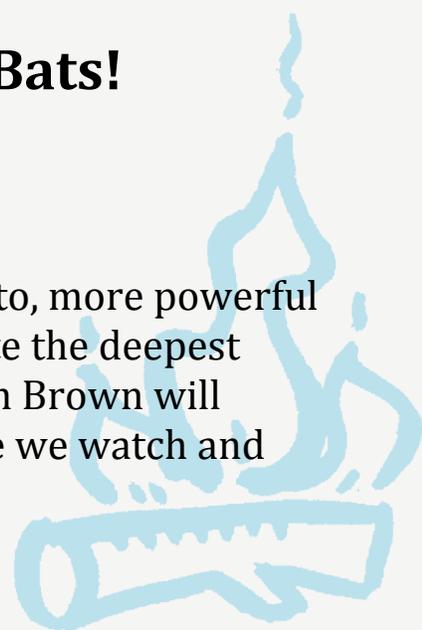

Join Brenda and Jim for songs and tunes from Ireland, played on traditional instruments: concertina, pennywhistles, guitar, accordion and drum. Rousing, heart-touching, danceable pieces, along with stories about how the music arose and how it has breathed life and love into Irish culture throughout Irish history—and how it continues today.

The Amazing Nightlife of Bats!

Saturday, July 23

8:30-9:30 p.m.

What's faster than a speeding mosquito, more powerful than bug repellent and able to navigate the deepest dark of night? Bats! Naturalist Carson Brown will share great bat facts and images while we watch and listen for real live bats.

AT THE CAMPGROUND AMPHITHEATER

Join us this weekend Around the Campfire

Old-Time Music with Dave and Will Elliot

Friday, July 29

8:00-9:00 p.m.

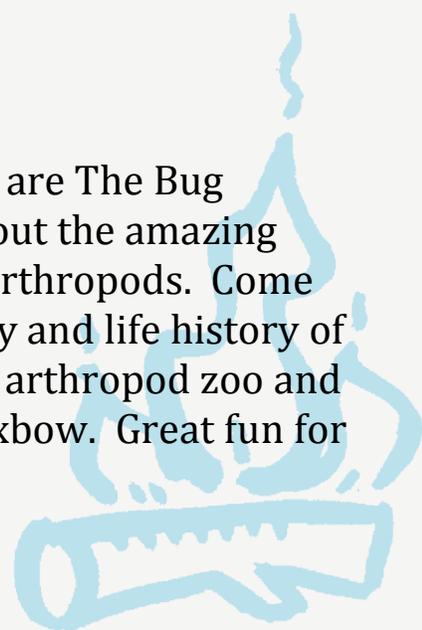

This local father-and-son duo from just up the hill returns to Oxbow with great blue-grass tunes. Enjoy some old-style duets and perhaps sing along with some favorites.

Incredible Arthropods!

Saturday, July 30

8:00-9:00 p.m.

Kristie Reddick and Jessica Honaker are The Bug Chicks, entomologists who teach about the amazing world of insects, spiders and other arthropods. Come explore the biodiversity, morphology and life history of some interesting animals from their arthropod zoo and learn about some of the insects at Oxbow. Great fun for the whole family!

AT THE CAMPGROUND AMPHITHEATER

Join us this weekend Around the Campfire

Promise the Moon

Friday, August 5

8:00-9:00 p.m.

Brance Pearson is an American born solo instrumental acoustic guitarist hailing from Portland, Oregon. His music is a union of techniques, improvisations and trial and error. Self-taught, he melds Celtic, progressive and traditional stylings that marry story and style in his own brand of writing and expression.

Finding Your Way Among the Stars

Saturday, August 6

8:30-10:00 p.m.

Would you like to find some constellations and better understand the stars? Rose City Astronomers will lead a discussion and presentation, complete with telescopes. Attendees will be shown several cosmic wonders. Have you ever seen the rings of Saturn through a telescope? How about a star cluster or a galaxy? Other topics include meteors and space travel. Bring your questions and your eyes for a fun night of enjoying the stars!

AT THE CAMPGROUND AMPHITHEATER

Join us this weekend Around the Campfire

Folk City Duo

Friday, August 12

8:00-9:00 p.m.

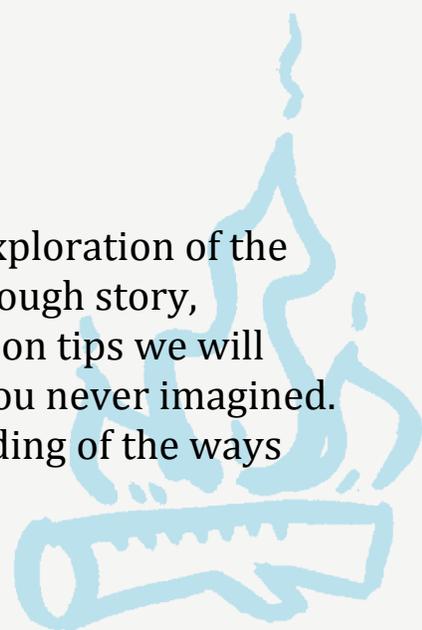

Enjoy sparkling instrumentals on hammered dulcimer and guitar and Mick Doherty and Kevin Shay Johnson play great traditional songs from the last few centuries. Sing along with original songs penned here in Oregon along with favorites from the likes of Woody Guthrie and John Prine.

Trees, Trees, Trees

Saturday, August 13

8:00-9:00 p.m.

Join Gradey Proctor for an evening exploration of the trees that reside at Oxbow Park. Through story, ecology, ethnobotany and identification tips we will illuminate our native trees in ways you never imagined. You'll come away with an understanding of the ways trees can teach us about a place.

AT THE CAMPGROUND AMPHITHEATER

Join us this weekend
Around the Campfire

Dave Orleans, The Earthsinger

Friday, August 19

8:00-9:00 p.m.

Dave brings a lively blend of energetic and folksy songs for all ages to the campfire. Sing along with songs about trees, watersheds, toads and much more.

Margaret Eng's Stories from the People of the Pacific Northwest

Saturday, August 20

8:00-9:00 p.m.

Native American stories from the people from Southern Oregon to the base of Alaska. Stories and some of the animal pelts will be shared during the evening.

AT THE CAMPGROUND AMPHITHEATER

Join us this weekend Around the Campfire

Sandy River Pickers

Friday, August 26

8:00-9:00 p.m.

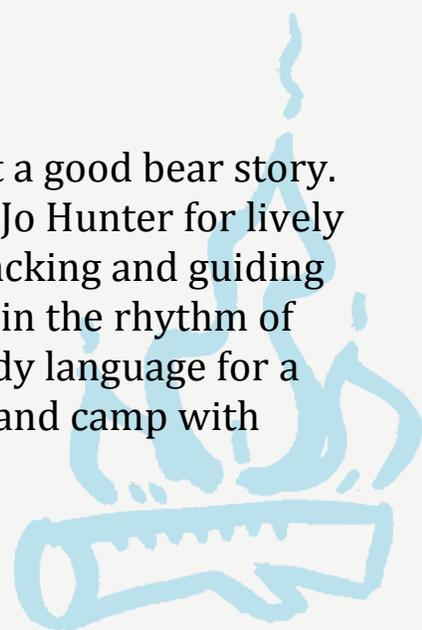

Spud Siegel will play a spritely selection of American and Irish tunes on mandolin and fiddle, while Mick Doherty backs him up on guitar. The guys will harmonize on some traditional and modern songs beneath the tall trees along the Sandy.

Bears!

Saturday, August 27

8:00-9:00 p.m.

No camping trip is complete without a good bear story. Join author, artist and tracker Linda Jo Hunter for lively bear tales collected from years of tracking and guiding people to see bears in the wild. Join in the rhythm of the store and practice some bear body language for a better understanding of how to live and camp with these amazing creatures.

AT THE CAMPGROUND AMPHITHEATER

Join us this weekend Around the Campfire

Music by Lukas Borsten

Friday, September 2

8:00-9:00 p.m.

Songwriter/multi-instrumentalist Lukas Borsten channels a delightfully eclectic range of influences including Bob Dylan, Leonard Cohen, Elliott Smith, and more. He plays in an energetic, heartfelt, lyric-driven folk style, incorporating originals, creative covers, stories, harmonica, and even some saxophone into an always memorable night of music! When not performing solo, he leads Portland-based band, Ghost Towns.

Oregon Shadow Theatre presents

The Green Bird, A Mexican Story

Saturday, September 3

8:30-9:30 p.m.

As the sun sets over the tall firs of Oxbow, the shadow screen is illuminated. A drum roll and a cymbal crash, the calliope sound of a button accordion, and the colorful shadow puppets come to life. In this funny and exciting story, young Miguel is transformed into a bird by a magician, and his brave friend Luisa sets out on an adventure to save him!

AT THE CAMPGROUND AMPHITHEATER