Ability to Commit to It's Our Nature (ION)

One of ION's goals is to build a community of learners, so regular attendance is essential. Please review the dates when class will be held. Is there anything in your personal or professional schedule that would prevent you from attending the vast majority of classes?

Please address the following questions:

Check this box if you have read the "Is this program a good fit" information on the ION web page.

1) Do you have any questions or concerns?

- 2) In order to participate in ION, you need to be able to walk without undue risk of falling over unstable ground (such as river rocks), wet slippery surfaces and go off trail. Do you have any questions or concerns about your ability on this kind of terrain?

- 3) What about this program interests you?

- 4) Do you have a reliable vehicle for getting to and from programs?

Note: There is no public transportation to program sites.

Yes No

- 5) Please provide us with any additional information that you feel is relevant to your application:

Please email your application to Sandy Jamison at sandra.jamison@oregonmetro.gov (include 'ION Application' in the subject line). Or you may print and mail it to, Sandy Jamison, Oregon Zoo – Conservation Education, 4001 SW Canyon Road, Portland, OR 97221-2799 or by fax to (503) 220-5712.

Sincerely,

Sandy Jamison, Program Assistant
