

Public Engagement Review Committee

About Metro

If you picnic at Blue Lake or take your kids to the Oregon Zoo, enjoy symphonies at the Schnitz or auto shows at the convention center, put out your trash or drive your car – we've already crossed paths.

So, hello. We're Metro – nice to meet you.

In a metropolitan area as big as Portland, we can do a lot of things better together. Join us to help the region prepare for a happy, healthy future.

The Public Engagement Review Committee (PERC) meets twice a year to review and help guide Metro's public engagement activities.

The committee consists of public involvement staff from Clackamas, Multnomah and Washington counties, at-large community members and representatives of community organizations.

Members are committed to community involvement, possess experience and knowledge of public engagement principles, and collectively represent the geographic and demographic diversity of the region.

PERC recruitment happens annually for one-third of the community members and community organization positions in order to ensure continuity on the committee. Local jurisdiction representatives are reappointed as desired by the sponsoring county. Committee terms run from January to December.

Interested in serving on the PERC? Want to learn more about Metro's public engagement review process? Contact Heather Coston at 503-813-7552 or heather.coston@oregonmetro.gov.
