Perspective 2: Chinese Workers Memorial – View East Toward Memorial

A curved pathway bordered by wildflowers leads to the Chinese funerary burner, memorial pine tree and interpretive stone sculpture inscribed with the phrase “You are still with us” in Chinese lettering. The memorial is capped by a wood and stone trellis structure. The trellis provides places for seating with views west to the Chinese Workers Memorial and views east to the Asylum Patients Memorial. A small maintenance building with display windows for found artifacts is proposed at the north end of the trellis. Chinese headstones from the original cemetery are located in the green.
