

Satisfied customers

“ I recommend Metro’s recycled paint because it’s cost effective, it goes on smooth, and it’s recycled. What’s not to like about it? ”

Mike Kujat
Contractor

“ I won’t buy any other paint. Thanks for making a high-quality product and being concerned for the environment! ”

More than recycled, remade new

MetroPaint is previously unwanted paint remade new. It is screened for quality and rebled into desirable colors. MetroPaint goes through a strict color-matching process to ensure the colors are consistent from one gallon to the next.

Environmentally smart

Choosing MetroPaint supports an effort that has remade millions of gallons of latex paint, keeping these reusable resources out of landfills.

Using recycled paint:

- decreases your carbon footprint.
- reduces the need for landfill space.
- conserves the water needed to make new paint.
- prevents pollution from the mining and extraction of raw materials.

Mountain Snow, glossy white and primer also available.

Printed colors are approximate. Color availability and price may vary by retailer.
