

There is a shortage of affordable housing relative to need in all three counties of the Portland metro area

Demand vs. supply of units affordable to households making 50% or less of area median income (AMI).

