Insurance & photo information for volunteers

You must “sign-in” and “sign-out” on an approved Metro timesheet at the beginning and end of every shift.

In case you accidentally injure someone or damage property:

Report any incidents of property damage or injury to others to a Metro representative ASAP and no later than the next business day. You will be asked to complete an accident/incident report form for immediate forwarding to Metro’s Risk Management division.

In case of injury:

If you are injured while performing your duties, you must report the injury to your staff lead ASAP and no later than the next business day.

Personal property:

The personal property of volunteers is generally not insured, unless the Metro Sustainability Center Director authorizes use of the personal property in writing before the damage occurs. This includes personal vehicle damage.

Photography:

Metro staff may photograph volunteers and use the images for volunteer appreciation and outreach purposes. Images may appear in presentations, displays, printed materials and on the web. Images are the property of Metro. By signing or initialing this form you acknowledge and agree to such use. If you do not wish to be photographed or to have your photograph used for these purposes, please alert Metro staff.
