

Color and discover

Fall at Newell Creek Canyon Nature Park

All along the canyon, small streams – some seasonal, some year-round – cascade down to Newell Creek Canyon. This is a good area to look for woodpeckers on snags, bird-hunting hawks flying in the trees, and maybe even raccoons and other larger animals walking by the streams.

Directions:

Identify all the wildlife as you fill this illustration with color.

Get social

Share your coloring creation with Metro! Snap a picture and tag @OregonMetro on Facebook and Instagram to be featured.

Wildlife

1. Vine maple	5. Red osier dogwood	9. Hazelnut	13. Red-legged frog
2. Pileated woodpecker	6. Brown creeper	10. Pacific waterleaf	14. Raccoon
3. Cooper's hawk	7. Pacific wren	11. Rough-skinned newt	15. Pacific chorus frog
4. Red-breasted sapsucker	8. Bewick's wren	12. Striped skunk	16. Salmonberry

