1:40 p.m.	ITS Network Fixes and Future Since 2005, the ITS Network provides a high-speed data link between multiple agencies around the Portland-Vancouver region. The ITS Network travels on shared fiber optics and remains a low-cost option to share big data streams such as traffic cameras and a connection to the Central Traffic Signal System. As partners link to services like electronic transit fares,* the partnership around the ITS Network becomes critical to services that travelers depend on. Hear an update from the ITS Network Management Team Chair, Matt Fouts, and discuss the variety of steps ahead to maintain fast, cheap and reliable data. See draft attachments that provide details of the multi-agency partnership. We also would like to hear your comments on future ways to share data.  *As part of this agenda item, we'll hear from Willie Rotich, Regional ITS Architecture Lead, on how this new service fits in to the current Architecture.	Matt Fouts (TriMet) / Willie Rotich (Portland) / Adrian Pearmine (DKS/VAST) / (All)
2:30 p.m.	Adjourn	Kate Freitag (ODOT)
